“ By God’s design,we are all connected to the destiny of others. So, God strategically placed someone on my path destined to drive me to Plymouth Church. Here,my path was destined to cross the path of Norma Jean Hamlin.

Even though I had taught Sunday School in my latter teen years,it was through Norma’s mentoring,taking me under her wing, that I became a much better teacher.I continue to apply those skills in teaching Ukrainian and most recently Haitian children,that Jesus loves them.

Norma was a kind,soft-spoken,loving,Christian lady.And when I was told of her having gone to Heaven, I promptly she’d tears. Those tears were of sadness because my time spent in fellowship with Norma,sharing a chicken salad sandwich,having a fun game night(which she very often calmly and quietly championed),or just chatting about the faithfulness of God,was now over on earth.

But,above all,those tears were tears of rejoicing, knowing Norma is now in Heaven,praising God with her beloved Dean and those who have gone before.

Norma Jean Helm Hamlin,destined to cross my path,by God’s design, was indeed a true blessing to my heart and to my life. MAgod continue to bless her beautiful family for generations.

Most Sincerely in Love, Vikki Briggs
