“ Sue, I'm so sorry to hear about Norm. We were out of town when we heard, but I want you to know with sad hearts you were in our thoughts and prayers. I'm going to miss the sounds of Norm yelling for his beloved friends Pudgey and Britney in the yard, and our friendly over the fence chats. Norm will be missed by the Wertz family. We are just next door if you need anything.

“ Normy, You have touched my heart in such a way I can only smile when I think of you. I feel like I have lost another family member. You are the most kindest, gentlest man I have ever had the privledge of knowing. There are no words to say how much I will miss you and that smile of yours. You will be in my heart forever.

“ Im truly sorry to hear about your lost. Norman will definitely be missed by so many. One thing that helps me deal or cope with loosing a loved one is the scripture John 5:28,29. It stats " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life....." Soon we will be able to see Norman again because God (Jehovah) promises a resurrection hope. Also if you notice that it uses the term "memorial tomb" and not [Grave] which means Gods memory. Norman seemed like a really nice guy, a person that God will definitely remember. I hope this gives some comfort. Dion R (Truth.1914@yahoo.com)

“ Uncle Normie - Words can not express how broken my heart is. You helped me buy my first car, and you walked me down the aisle. You were always there for me & my mom. My heart is heavy and in my throat. I get comfort in knowing your not hurting any longer, and you're in heaven partying with Grandma, Grandpa, Corky, Uncles Charlie, Tom, and Bob. Please give them all a hug from me and tell them we miss them. Love, Linda.
