“ My Dad wasn't very well educated but what knowledge he Did have and didn't have taught me life lessons . Thank you for being our Dad . Thinking of you always until we meet again . I Love You Dad.

“ The first time that I'd thought that we'd met was during a trip made with my maternal grandmother to the Department of Health and Human Services in Detroit, Michigan. That wasn't our the first time meeting, he had me for 6 moths after my birth that January 2, 1966. I'd noticed that a strange White/Caucasian man was following us & I'd said "Momma, why is this White man following us?" She responded, "Boy, that's your daddy." That was the last time that I'd see him. I truly miss my dad & mom, along with other family members who's transitioned. Thanks 4 the wonderful service on his behalf for our family.

“ Im truly sorry to hear about your lost. Norman will definitely be missed by so many. One thing that helps me deal or cope with loosing a loved one is the scripture John 5:28,29. It stats " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life....." Soon we will be able to see Norman again because God (Jehovah) promises a resurrection hope. Also if you notice that it uses the term "memorial tomb" and not [Grave] which means Gods memory. Norman seemed like a really nice guy, a person that God will definitely remember. I hope this gives some comfort. Dion R (Truth.1914@yahoo.com)
