“ To the family and friends of Oliver Little. I would like to send my condolences to each of you. Although we are not acquainted with one another we have all experienced the loss of a loved one to the enemy death. Our Heavenly Father feels the pain you are going through. He does, however, hold out a promise that one day soon He will wipe every tear of sorrow from our eyes forever and death will be no mores. (Revelation 21:3-5) He also promises that all those in the memorial tombs (graves) will hear His voice and come out. (John 5:28,29) Until those words are fulfilled may you find comfort in God and in His promises.

“ What a loss. Ollie was a wonderful person and a big plus in our families life. A true friend that was always there to lend a helping hand. One of the most generous people we have ever known. Always fun to be with and had a great knack of solving problems and "making things right". "Well done good and faithful servant, enter into the joys of the Lord" We love ya, Jack & Phyl

“ Dear Lil, of all the significant events in one's life the loss of a spouse has got to be one of the most difficult to endure. Please know our heartfelt thoughts and prayers are with you, and hope you take comfort in the knowledge that Ollie is in a better place and at peace. God bless you and may time be your healer and your very best memories sustain you at this time.

“ Am truly sorry to hear of Ollie's departure. We were co-workers for some 35 years and I will miss him, even though we haven't seen much of each other recently. He was an intelligent and a hard worker, always accomplishing his tasks. Ollie had a lots of friends and we had many fish fries amd ground rounds/beer at the Box bar. May his soul rest in peace and that the family know he is a far better place.
