“ Lee always had a smile for me and a "Hi how are ya?" everytime I would see here at Canton Place. I called her the Sweater Lady because I never seen her without one. Many people miss her here but aren't able to attend. RIP dear lady, Douglas Hayes

“ So sad is my heart at the loss of my 2nd mom. She truly was a mom to me. So many memories I have from my lifetime of knowing her. Even after I moved out of state we kept in touch and I would come back to visit her. We would remember the past and talk about Lynn and she would always fill me in on what her boys were doing. I couldn't keep up with all the grandkids. she was the sweetest, kindest, lovely person I've ever known and will keep her in my heart along with Lynn. So glad I got to be with her on her 92nd birthday in June. I was truly blessed for her in my life.
My deepest condolences to Bill, Denny, and Kevin and your familys
Love,
Kathy
