“ Orville was the sweetest, kindest, generous man. He will be missed by so very many and not just in his beloved dance community. I can see him now dancing with his wife Cecilia that passed over 20 years ago. He spoke of her often. He said even in the early years they got a babysitter almost weekly and went dancing. I know they are dancing together again. Orville we will all miss you.

“ Orville loved to dance and listen to music. He was always supporting the cause buying whatever tickets were sold and often won the prize. What a joy it was getting to know him over the years at all the dance events. It was a great comfort to know you would be there and now you are watching and dancing again with your bride! He was fun, thoughtful and shared his wisdom and hugs. We will bake some cookies for you. He already is and will continue to be missed. We must hang on to all the great memories. My deepest sympathies on the passing of such a wonderful person as Orville

“ I work at Joy Manor. This is a place where I would see Orville a couple times a week attending the dances held there. He was always the 1st one there. I'd put his walker aside for him and get him his water and we would chat for a few until the other guests started arriving. He would tell me stories of his life and upbringing. We had quite a few laughs and some serious conversations of the current times and how things have changed. Well, he changed my life. He made me see the good in people and want to be a better person. He was the nicest, pleasant and caring man. He will be deeply missed. Save a seat for me Orv.

“ I remember always being made to feel welcome when I came for a visit. Orville loved to talk and I loved to listen.
