“ "His spirit goes out, he returns to the ground; on that very day his thoughts perish." Psalm 146:4. Is it not a good thing that we are not in a place of torment, we are actually in a sleep like state, this scripture can give you comfort.

“ Pat was a wonderful friend of our family. We grew up across the street from them. My brother Joel is best friends with Frankie. She always fed the stray cats everyday on the street. She will now join our mother Elaine up in heaven.

“ We may have lost touch over the years but Aunt Pat was a big part of my childhood. The summers belonged to Ramon and I hanging out with Coco and Frankie. Whether it was biking to the Paul Store or swimming in their pool. She always had soda, yoohoo, and snacks for us. I could always count on getting a sugar high at her house. I cherish those days and will continue to cherish those memories for my whole life. I love you guys and hope that with each day it gets easier to cope. She was a beloved woman who I was proud to call my aunt. Love you.

“ I will miss seeing pat. My heart goes out to the entire family. I enjoyed visiting with her when she came in meijers. I always called her momma-pat. She will always be in our hearts forever.

“ I sit here and try to speak the perfect words but that is impossible. Nothing can take the pain away. But what I do know is that with God and time, this pain and sadness you are experiencing will be comforted by cherished memories. Aunt Pat is going to be missed by many, as she has touched many lives in one way or another. My love and prayers will be with Tio Ernie, Frank, and Coco.
