“ No son could hope to be blessed with a mother as wonderful as mine. No matter how many mistakes I made in life, no matter how many times the things I did disappointed her, she was always there when I needed her. She comforted me when I was sad. She picked me up when I'd fall down. She pushed me to succeed and helped in any way she could. I know that many of the choices I made in life hurt her and I can never change that. I promise you this mom, I will dedicate the rest of my life to making you proud. I know that you are there watching over me and there will be nothing more that I do to sadden you.

I love you, mom, and I miss you.

Goodbye and God bless you and keep you.

“ Im truly sorry to hear about your lost. Patricia will definitely be missed by so many. One thing that helps me deal or cope with losing a loved one is the scripture John 5:28,29. It states, " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life....." Soon we will be able to see Patricia again because God (Jehovah) promises a resurrection hope. Also if you notice that it uses the term "memorial tomb" and not [Grave] which means Gods memory. Patricia seems like a really nice lady, a person that God will definitely remember. I hope this gives some comfort.

“ Hi, I just happened to be going thru the obituaries and remembered Patricia. I used to live next door on Middlesex in the 1950's. Michael and Cheryl probably don't remember me, but I remember you. I was so saddened to hear about your loss. I know she would have remembered me. I remember her parents too. Rosalie Wolicki (Paratore) Rosalie Wolicki(Paratore), Livonia, MI
