“Patty was my dear friend at St. Gregory High School. We were the trio of friendship: Patty, Maureen, and me. She was such a great person to hang with, going to school games, watching her as a cheerleader. She was very involved in all school activities. I remember the three of us had stayed after to help one of the nuns working on a school activity. The nun said we were all good individually, but collectively that was another matter. We did love to have fun. Her home was always inviting. I remember her sister Rosemary who was always welcoming.

I last saw her at our 50th reunion. She had not changed, so happy, talking about her grandkids.

To her family-I am so sorry for your loss-know that she is with the angels.

“ As little girls, we were good friends. As grownups, we were still good friends. I will miss you a lot. I am grateful you are no longer in pain. You were a great wife, mom, grandma, sister, friend. I know your Irish eyes are smiling now in heaven.

*Love,
Rosie*
