“ I would like to pay my respects to Pat, a former colleague at Ford. Pat, always a good friend and associate, was among the finest people I have ever met in the auto business. His ready smile and cool nature were trademarks not always prevalent in the business and social world. God Bless Him!!

“ Pat was a great man. He was strong but always humble. He was incredibly kind and generous; never heard him utter a bad word about anyone. He was very smart but always gave credit to everyone else. He was a leader but had a knack of always leading from within. He was a great man and will be missed by all that had the good fortune to have met and worked with him.

“ Im truly sorry to hear about your lost. Patrick will definitely be missed by so many. One thing that helps me deal or cope with loosing a loved one is the scripture John 5:28,29. It stats " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life....." Soon we will be able to see Patrick again because God (Jehovah) promises a resurrection hope. Also if you notice that it uses the term "memorial tomb" and not [Grave] which means Gods memory. Patrick seems like a really nice guy, a person that God will definitely remember. I hope this gives some comfort. Dion R (Truth.1914@yahoo.com)

“ My deepest condolences to the family for your loss, may your hearts find peace in knowing that soon, all suffering and death will soon be eradicated - Revelation 21:3, 4. One day soon, our savior Jesus Christ and his Father, Jehovah God promise, that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous -Acts 24:15.
