“ Annie, Jordan, Alisha, Collin, and the entire Smith family, while my prayers for strength and love and support cannot begin to ease your pain for the loss such a wonderful person, I hope that feeling Pat's kindness and laughter and love for you all rains down upon you every day to eternity and fills you with happiness. The Smith's and Gildea's will forever be bonded by our history as neighbors and great friends. All of you will always be part of our family as will Pat. I will forever remember Pat's great smile, kind ways, easy laughter, caring heart, playing two-square in the street with us even by street light, scaring us in the swimming pool just for laughs, and many more Rosslyn street memories! Though we can't be with him now, his wonderful legacy lives on in his children, and he is without a doubt in God's graceful presence.

“ I've known Pat for 44 yrs. I remember one year my Parents dressed up as Mr & Mrs Clause for a Christmas Party that the Smith Family was having, they were so happy to play along & hand out gifts to the little ones. My Mom & Dad had a putt putt Golf tournament in their backyard to raise money for First Step, Pat & Anne helped make a few Putt Putt holes along with other members of the Smith Family. We were very close to Pat's Family. After my Mother passed away Pat would come over to hang out with my Dad. My Father would say "HEY THERE'S SPIFFY" and him & my Dad would hang out for hours just talking & laughing. Pat was SO proud of his kids & loved his wife very much. He was awesome. After my Father took his life Pat was right there to keep an eye out on my Brother & I. He made sure I made it home safely that night by dropping me off at home. I always knew since the age of 4 that when Pat was around it was going to be a great time. His laugh was contagious & his love was real. I will miss you Pat, you were a great man with a great family. XOXO

“ *Annie, Jordan, Alisha and Collin:
My heart breaks for the four of you. No words that I say will ever take your pain away.
Pat truly was a wonderful, funny brother. I know he loved you Annie immensely. He thought the world of his three kids, you could see it on his face. He lit up talking about all of you.
Pat was the brother I could count on and he always had a wisecrack to make you laugh.
Listening to his never ending stories, and they generally were about his NW/Delta Family was hilarious.
You have earned your Angel Wings in Heaven, as a great husband, dad, son, brother, uncle and friend to all.
The lawns in Heaven are going to be impeccable now that you have arrived.
I will forever cherish my years with you and love you forever.
Love Always,
Kim*

“ My heart breaks for you Annie, Jordan, Alisha and Collin. Pat couldn't have been more proud of his amazing family and the closeness you all share. He will continue to be with you in everything you do. The warm sunshine, a gentle breeze, a beautiful butterfly, but most importantly, in your hearts and in your memories. He was such a fun brother with a huge heart and an even bigger sense of humor. I'm going to miss our Friday talks and his burst of laughter.

The most painful goodbyes are the ones that are never said and never explained.

Love to all of you,

Tina ❤️

My heart aches for Anne and the family. I hurt for Craig, knowing what a significant friend Pat was in his life. Yes, I was one that was around when that friendship burst forth. The things those two would do! I'm crying at the loss - but also shedding tears of joy remembering the life and laughter he brought to our family. I can't express the love we have for him. May God wrap this family in His loving arms and give them comfort and peace.

I remember so many family visits. Pat kept my iced tea topped up, helped carry stuff from my car, took my dog out when my knees hurt, made sure we had hot coffee for the ride home. He was a neutering and thoughtful guy. I miss him.

Dear Smith Family; I'm a coworker of Pat; although we worked together after all these years, we never worked a single arrival/departure flight together, but in our passing, Pat and I had great conversations and laughter together. Being a devoted husband and father myself, I knew from the beginning of our friendship at work, that Pat filled that billet. You could just tell by his demeanor and attitude that he was a family man who provided the best for his immediate family and surely loved you all immensely. Nobody disliked Pat which is a fact. The loss of Pat is a tremendous inner hurt, felt throughout the tarmac among the workers, that has never been felt before of an employee. He was extremely well liked. As a former US Marine; I felt I lost one of my own; that is how much Pat meant to me. He went above the call of duty of being a loyal, trusted employee of NWA/DELTA and Dad and husband. I will think of you often Pat and your laugh as the years fall upon us. I wish your immediate family of wife and children, Peace now and until eternity. Rest in Peace with our Lord Savoir Patrick.
