“ Jane and family, I am so very blessed for being able to have known Paul through our church. Paul and Jane, you were so committed to working for the Lord in any way you could. I remember seeing the two of you each Sunday morning at the front door passing out bulletins and greeting us all so warmly. Paul was very faithful in keeping the record going of what took place each Sunday. That is all he ever asked of me - "Please make some more copies of this blank report, we are getting low" We love you! Anna Adkins - Crossroads Church of God - Howell

“ We will miss Paul as one of our kindest neighbors! He was always pleasant and thoughtful. One of our fondest memories is the meticulous way he cared for his home and yard. We thought it was great the way he would mow his yard with an umbrella attached to his mower! Our thoughts and prayers are with Jane and her family this holiday season. Jon, Sue and Kris
