“ Although I have not seen your family in over 30 years I have very fond memories of your dad. I will always remember him outside, shirtless, cigar, and a longneck beer after a hard day at work, and will never forget his laugh. He got me a job in construction when I was only 16. what a nice man, my condolences to you.

Thanks Larry. I did not notice your kind words, until now. I hope all is well with your family,

Your old buddy,

Brian

“ Paul, eternal rest grant onto you... May you Rest In Peace. May the road rise up to meet you, may the sun always be at your back, and until we meet again, may God hold you in the palm of his hands. I'm blessed to have known you, you were a great man.

“ Im truly sorry to hear about your lost. Paul will definitely be missed by so many. One thing that helps me deal or cope with loosing a loved one is the scripture John 5:28,29. It stats " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment." Soon we will be able to see Paul again because God (Jehovah) promises a resurrection hope. Also if you notice that it uses the term "memorial tomb" and not [Grave] which means Gods memory. Paul seemed like a really nice guy, a person that God will definitely remember. I hope this gives some comfort. Dion R (Truth.1914@yahoo.com)

“ Uncle Paul was one of those people, who you couldn't help but be in a good mood around. He had a zest for life and such great stories that would make you laugh. He had a soft heart and would defend his sons and me whenever he thought my mother (his sister) was overreacting, even though we got into our share of mischief when together. One memory I have is insisting that I watch him clean rabbits caught while hunting on a trip to my grandparents' house over Thanksgiving. Once we sat down to eat, I just couldn't bring myself to touch the cooked rabbit. You'll be missed, Uncle Paul, but united with your family members. You were the last surviving sibling.

“ My father, Paul Girskis was my hero and role model. He was always there for my brother, Mike & I. He was a great husband to my mom, Lillian. My father always got my wife of almost 34 years, Linda, a rose on her birthday every year! He loved her like his own daughter. Paul Girskis was the best grandpa to my three sons, Brian, Paul & Pat. And, he loved Mike & Denise's kids, Katie & Kelly so much. He did not have a bad word to say about anything or anybody. Dad, I'm gonna miss you but I will never forget you. I love you dad. Brian
