“ I spoke with Larry almost everyday over the last three years. He was sweet man. Always kind words to say about everyone - Even our sport teams!! He always asked about my wife and children and shared stories within me about his youth and family growing up. He wanted dearly to again be of service to others and join his family on trips up north. Larry was dedicated and always made it a point to say "God bless you and your family". So sad to hear of his passing after the service. I just figured he was back in the hospital for a short stay. I don't know what happened or if I can be of service to the family. God Bless YOU, Larry. I will me our calls and cherish the time we spent shooting the breeze. David Woods 734 968-8554

“ I was very sorry to hear about Father Larry's passing. I liked his sense of humor and always having a good word for someone. I will never forget the Eulogy he gave for Caroline Gach, his sweet grandmother. Now he has had his own eulogy and is in the good place with her.

“ We spent some time with Fr. Larry while he was living in NC being treated at the Duke Center in North Carolina. We knew him from a parish in Michigan. He was very friendly and had a warm personality. We pray he is at peace in his eternal life.

“ Prayers and blessings to the siblings, nieces, nephews and great nieces and nephews of Father Larry. I have many memories as a girl sharing holidays with my cousin, Father Larry. Festive Thanksgivings, singing Christmas carols, and prayers together around dinner tables and at family reunions. He always had such kind eyes, sweet humor and a way of bringing family together to connect with Spirit. I am sure he will continue to do so.

Rest In Peace Father Larry.

“ Fr. Larry was such a kind and happy priest and a Great Tiger Fan. He would always talk to our son Phil about baseball after Mass and wouldn't give up on those Tigers. He loved going to the games and sometimes when he couldn't go would give us a treat. So nice of him to do that!

Loved the way he always smiled and was upbeat even though he was hurting many times. He was someone you could talk to so easily just like he was one of your family.

He was pastor of St. Helena's until it closed and he did his very best.

May he rest in God's Light and Peace Joe and Reggie Piasecki and Family

“ I had the occasion a few years back to connect with Larry. He was pastor of a parish that eventually rented their former catholic school to a public charter school. I was involved in making the new arrangement work! In between the formal meetings- we chatted about our high school experiences, the twists, and turns of our life adventures, and just enjoying each other’s company. Larry was a pure heart, and I agree always looking at the sunrise and not the sunset- and one of the good guys! Safe travels, my friend!

“ Father Larry, as he preferred, preached the Good News of Jesus at many parishes in SE Michigan. He was a family man and a family priest. He loved being part of a big family and embraced the opportunities to celebrate mass at family weddings, funerals, reunions, etc. Every parish he served became another family—so endearing was his kindness, friendship, his love and laughter. God bless you, Father Larry.

“ Larry was one of my best friends in high school at Sacred Heart Seminary. We went to many games together and played hockey on the frozen ponds of Rouge Park and Palmer Park. Larry was a very special and kind person who I shared so many hours with Camp Ozanham. I will miss him and his infectious smile and his always positive attitude.

God Bless you Larry. You were a great and faithful servant. Rest in peace my dear friend!!

“ Larry was a kind man. Always had an optimistic view of the world and was devout and holy. Much loved by his family. Suffered more than many in his last few years but was always striving for better days ahead. I believe he's found his ultimate salvation and is now at peace and rejoicing up in heaven with his folks. In my family photo archives I found a photo of baby Larry with his dad & siblings, and also a photo of his school graduation, with my mother. She was Larry's godmother and was so proud of him.

“ Oh, Larry ...it was soooo nice that we were able to get together earlier this last year to share a Dagwood Deli sandwich. Had hoped to do the same thing again later this year. Gonna miss ya, bud.

Lisa and I will always remember the love, wisdom and warmth that you brought to our lives. It was our privilege to know you as not just the pastor who married us, but we also grew to love you as a dear friend. We will miss our Sunday morning visits with small greek salad with lite dressing, coffee, communion, the Oakland Press and the St. Benedict Messenger. I'll miss our talks about the Tigers, Lions, Red Wings, and Pistons and all other sports related things. I'll miss the counselling and education you always so willingly provided to us for all things scriptural and spiritual.

God Bless you our dear friend. I know you are at peace with your beloved parents who you spoke so proudly of.
