“ Paul and Joyce were not only my next door neighbors for my entire life, but they were very much considered my grandparents - my family!!! Paul's loving nature, big smile, kind and upbuilding nature will surely be missed. All our love and support to Joyce. Love you!!!

“ My heart breaks for you, Joyce! Paul was such a kind and sweet man, and your 66 years together was such a great testimony to the love you shared together! I've missed his beautiful smile, his Dick Purton good looks, and friendliness at church. May God comfort you and give you strength every day. You are loved, and Heaven's Angels Paul and Aileen are watching over you!

“ One time My father Cousin Paul and myself went to an Italian American festival in West Virginia. I noticed that Paul was always greeted more warmly than my Father Thomas Marano and I thought perhaps it was because he looked like a radio celebrity from back then. However I soon realized that it was because he was always smiling (which was enhanced by his bushy mustache) so I decided to experiment. I began to smile broadly at everyone. Soon I was also getting very warm welcome as well. Now to this day whenever I want to diffuse or improve a situation and make people greet me well I smile like Paul unknowingly taught me. I'll always remember Paul warmly. Thank you Paul rest well.

“ Joyce Dear, So sorry to hear of Paul's passing. Such a fine gentle man! We were both blessed woman to marry such gentle souls as was my Mario too. But death for them both is a blessing as their life was untenable in its last stage. We will miss them and love them always. May God mend your broken heart and bless you for your beautiful dedication to Paul's life.

“ My cousin Paul was an incredible, intelligent, compassionate person to have known. It was my great fortune to have been his cousin and to grow up in his presence. His kind, generous soul will be sorely missed. He always treated those who knew him good humor and respect. I know God will welcome his soul into his loving arms. My condolences go out to Joyce. My hope is she will find comfort in the many wonderful years they had together.
