“ Paul was a dear friend and father figure to my brother Doug and all his band of friends. (And that included me!) Paul's doors were always open for anyone to stop by. Even after Sandy passed away. It didn't matter what time of day or night you showed up. You didn't need an invitation; everyone was always welcome into Paul's home. There was always love, support, wonderful conversation and something to drink and eat. This type of hospitality is something very rare...this is a gift that God gave Paul. I will cherish those fun times and the unconditional love that I felt from Paul and Sandy. I am happy that Paul graduated to heaven to be with our Lord and Savior and his loving wife, that he has deeply missed. Paul, we will meet again....so keep the doors open for me and our hometown gang from Westland, MI.

“ I first met Paul Williams when I was 11years old. He gave me my first go kart to Repair. He taught me how to weld. Later on we started a small business making neon signs. Paul wasn't just a good friend. He was a huge part of our family. We will miss him dearly.

“ Paul lived across the street from our family growing up on Plainview in Warrendale. Our families were all best friends. He married my best friend Sandy Lynch who lived one house apart from each other. I was with them when they got married and they went with me when I got married. We were blessed to have Paul & his family in our lives many years and will miss him. May he be reunited with his wife, Sandy & other family member in everlasting peace together. Memories are my treasures

“ I always remember every time he introduced me to one of his friends,he told the story how we became friends. I was a paperboy and refused to deliver only the Sunday paper to him because I wanted him to sign up for the weekly paper too. Lol . I loved him as a brother and will never forget the fun times we had just hanging out in his garage. You're finally home with your wife Sandy and son Paul. Your true friend, Dennis

Paul Williams was the only brother I had on this earth. We met 63 years ago on the assembly line at Cadillacs. Over that 63 years we never so much has had an argument. PAUL was the kind of guy that never made anything better or never made anything worse but ever he told you came from his heart. He will be missed dearly. PAUL loved the Lord and him and I prayed for the last three or four months of his life that he would fall asleep and wake up in heaven, I believe because of his love for the Lord the Lord heard our prayers and that's just how he left this world he fell asleep, and now he is in heaven with the Lord and his dear wife Sandy

I met Paul through my brother, Jim, who is married to Nancy, Paul's daughter. He and Sandy immediately drew me and my ex-husband Jeff into his family and friend circle and made us feel so welcome and loved. We went to jams at their house and I have so many great memories, listening to them play, laughing out loud, playing pool. It was fantastic!

*On Christmas Eve Paul was Santa Claus and we laughed like hell when the kids would run and scream. Another time we went down to the Woodward dream cruise in his black Jeep and had so much fun. He was generous, gregarious and just a lovely person and I am so grateful to have known him!
RIP Paul Williams.*

Paul Williams was an important figure in my life. I lived across the street from The Williams family. Paul and Sandy were surrogate parents to me, a sensitive young child who needed a grounded presence I could rely on. I could walk across the street and into their home anytime, night or day and was welcomed with open hearts. Thank you Paul, Sandy and the whole Williams family for being such good friends and beautiful souls. I hold you in my heart and memory always.
