“ I'm sorry for your loss. Death is our common enemy as it affects all of us. I therefore want to encourage the family to take heart and be hopeful in the promise by Jehovah God, that he will wipe every tear and no more will be any death again. Death will be brought to nothing, Isaiah 25:8 and 1Corinthians 15:28. God by means of Jesus will call and all that died will hear his voice and come out. John 5:25. We have an opportunity to see our dead loved ones come back to life again and never to die. What a wonderful moment that will be!

“ I just would like to say that I remember Pauline and Sod Schaffer from when I was a little girl. I went to school with you LaVonne, and I am so sorry to read of your Mom's death. She had a good long life. I remember taking the bus to your home after school one day, and getting in trouble because no one knew where I was. I also remember having dinner there one night, and your Mom had made beet soup. The Schaffer Family was a good part of the early days of Livonia, they gave so much to McKinney Highway, which became Merriman Road. I remember your Dad's service on the Livonia Fire Department. Your Mom was a lovely Woman and she always treated me with kindness and welcome as did your Dad. I wish you all well, and please know that I am thinking of you. May God Bless you all, Missy Poppenger

“ To the Family of Pauline Schaffer, During this time of difficulty, may you find comfort by considering the finest basis of encouragement, God's Word the Bible. May you find comfort by considering Ps. 146:5,9 where God assures us that he cares for us when we have lost a loved one in death. Also, 2 Corinthians 1:3,4 truly shows that Jehovah God is a God of comfort who cares for us in all our tribulations. May your family continue to find comfort by considering God's word.
