“ Karen,

I miss your mom's banana bread and other treats already!! She took such good care of everyone. I will never forget the two of you hosting my baby shower and making the day and event very special for me at a time when I didn't have much family to plan something like that for me. Remember the air conditioning went out and it was the middle of a hot July day!! Your mom was all worried , of course, about everyone else but it was truly a great day and fun for all!! I always enjoyed my chats with her on the phone. She always said something funny that put a smile on my face, even on a not-so-fun busy work day! Peggy-----I will miss you!!!

“ I remember Peggy' beautiful gardens - a true English women and her fabulous cooking. I would join the family periodically for dinner while I was attending college with Karen. My favorite was roast beef and yorkshire pudding. Don't think I have had any since then.

Take care Karen and Sandy.
