“ Besides my mother, Aunt Peggy was very influential to me. I was so impressed with her immaculate home as a little kid! She also became a friend when I would give her permanent waves and try to get her hair highlighted blonde. It never worked out! Haha! She was a great cook and hostess and she always had the gang over for the 4th of July fireworks! She was truly a southern girl with S

“ Aunt Peg, I will always remember the joy and laughter you brought to the family gatherings. Joanie and I would try to surprise you with our hijinx..and you would always be overwhelmed with laughter. You were the first female in the family allowed at the euchre table. I remember you and Uncle Richie coming to our son’s wedding in Winnipeg. Rest in peace now, your joy continues.
