“ Im truly sorry to hear about your lost. Peter will definitely be missed by so many. One thing that helps me deal or cope with losing a loved one is the scripture John 5:28,29. It states, " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life....." Soon we will be able to see Peter again because God (Jehovah) promises a resurrection hope. I hope this gives some comfort.

“ Larry was waiting for Pete, right in front of Jesus. We already miss him, but have the confidence that he is in a much better place, laughing with Larry and trying to get others to laugh at the toothbrush story! Praying for all the Veas he has left a beautiful legacy in all of you!

“ We are so sad to hear the news about Pete. We are glad that we have been able to see you guys somewhat recently. We know Pete is free of pain and in a much better place, although it is difficult for those left behind. Memories are so precious and being around Pete provided so many for many family and friends. We are with you in spirit and pray for everyone to get through these difficult times. Love and prayers, Tom, Peggy and Aunt Mary

“ Dear Janet and Veas family, We are so sorry to hear of Pete's passing. I am sure you know that you have a lot of wonderful friends and your ever supporting family who care about you and will be there when ever you need them. Please count me in that group of your friends. Sincerely, Gwen and Randy Markiewicz
