“ My compassion for Mr.Kasperek probably can't be described by words,or emotion.My name is Marco and I am 9 years old and,though I only knew Mr.Kasperek for a month,I have a deep reverence for him.Me and my Dad were the only people in my family to meet Mr.Kasperek,I feel so blessed to have met him. When my Dad gave him Communion he took his hand and thanked him. His joyfulness I'll never forget.He seemed so devoted to the Eucharist. I could've called him 'Saint'Kasperek.I'll never forget that man I met at Hope nursing home,it was a great privilege to meet this amazing,holy,loving,and very good man.

“ I only had the pleasure of meeting this wonderful man one time. A month ago I was at Hope Nursing Center to bring Holy Communion to some people I know there. Philip spoke up, introduced himself to me, reminisced about Poland, said that he was a Catholic and asked if he could also receive. I was very impressed by his reverence, his gentle friendliness and what a lovely man he was. He was extremely grateful for the Eucharist, and I promised that I would come to see him again. My 9 year old son, Marco, and I were so taken by him that we told my wife all about him. He truly touched our hearts. Today when we returned to Hope, Marco reminded me that we had to look for Philip, to bring him Communion again and to introduce the rest of our family to him, but we learned the sad news of his passing. And yet, knowing his love for God, we were also happy for him, that he went home to live in joy and peace for all eternity. Jesus came to him and for him. We shall never forget him. What a special privilege it was to have met him. What a lovely and loving man! Our lives were briefly touched by his presence, and we are forever thankful for having been blessed by our short encounter. God bless you Philip. I know that you will rest in true peace.

“ I will miss hearing Phil stories about New Port Richey. He knew that my family lives down there, and his friendliness towards everyone. He is missed by all at Westhaven Manor.
