“ Phyllis was a highschool co-op student at MNB on 8Mile/Chapel when I was secretary there. Years later it was wonderful to see her as manager at our local branch. And rewarding to see how she'd grown from a shy and timid teenager to a successful administrator. My regret is that I never pursued my plan for a reunion with all my favorite co-workers from the '70's. Phyllis was definitely on that list. So sorry to read of her death. I will keep all of her family in my thoughts and prayers.

“ *Dear Werth Family,
I was shocked and saddened to hear of the passing of Phyllis. It's been a long time since I've seen her, probably your mom's funeral. I have such fond memories growing up on Salem with her. The hours and hours we played Monopoly, 500 Rummy and rode our bikes to Mays party store. We had a lot of laughs, the neighborhood hide-and-seek games and red rover. When Chris was born she jumped right in to help out. May all of you be comforted by your fond memories and fun times together. She's in a better place. God Bless*

“ One great thing about being human is our love for one another never dies. Even though our human bodies pass away, our love for one another never dies. We can still feel the love of spirit & soul all around us. Please accept our deepest sympathies for your loss. Praying that you keep your strength throughout this grieving period in your lives. With the passing of time the hole in your heart's will heal, but you will never forget! Years from now, stories of your beloved sister will bring smiles and laughter to you all. May God be with you.

“ To the living, I am gone. To the sorrowful, I will never return. To the angry, I was cheated. But to the happy, I am at peace. And to the faithful, I have never left. Phyllis will be added to our Remeberance page with wonderful memories of her devotion.

“When tomorrow starts without me, And I’m not there to see, If the sun should rise and find your eyes All filled with tears for me; I wish so much you wouldn’t cry The way you did today, While thinking of the many things, We didn’t get to say. I know how much you love me,” “As much as I love you, And each time you think of me, I know you’ll miss me too; But when tomorrow starts without me, Please try to understand, That an angel came and called my name, And took me by the hand, And said my place was ready, In heaven far above And that I’d have to leave behind All those I dearly love. But as I turned to walk away, A tear fell from my eye For all my life, I’d always thought, I didn’t want to die. I had so much to live for, So much left yet to do, It seemed almost impossible, That I was leaving you. I thought of all the yesterdays,” “The good ones and the bad, The thought of all the love we shared, And all the fun we had. If I could relive yesterday Just even for a while, I’d say good-bye and kiss you And maybe see you smile. But then I fully realized That this could never be, For emptiness and memories, Would take the place of me. And when I thought of worldly things I might miss come tomorrow, I thought of you, and when I did My heart was filled with sorrow. But when I walked through heaven’s gates I felt so much at home When God looked down and smiled at me, From His great golden throne, He said, “This is eternity,” “And all I’ve promised you. Today your life on earth is past But here it starts anew. I promise no tomorrow, But today will always last, And since each day’s the same way, There’s no longing for the past. You have been so faithful, So trusting and so true. Though there were times You did some things You knew you shouldn’t do. But you have been forgiven And now at last you’re free. So won’t you come and take my hand And share my life with me?” So when tomorrow starts without me, Don’t think we’re far apart, For every time you think of me, I’m right here, in your heart.”

“ Im truly sorry to hear about your lost. Phyllis will definitely be missed by so many. One thing that helps me deal or cope with losing a loved one is the scripture John 5:28,29. It states, " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life....." Soon we will be able to see Phyllis again because God (Jehovah) promises a resurrection hope. I hope this gives some comfort.

“ Sue, Norma and family. I'm so sorry for your loss of Phyllis. She was an incredible woman! There's nothing that prepares our heart for the hole that losing a love one leaves. That's why we are sending our love to help. May God's grace give u what u need. ;Thinking of you all, our prayers are with you. Much love.
