“ Dear Randolph,

This is professor of ME4202 Design of Turbomachinery and Wind Power Generation.

It was a great pleasure to have in the class. Your performance on chapter quizzes, exam and extra credits exercises are very outstanding. You are at the top 5% of the class. We miss you very very much. You will be remembered by your classmates, your friends, your family and myself.

Please be rest in peace and comfort with our Lord.

“ As one of his instructors, I saw Randolph's bravery in pursuing his studies and self-improvement amidst a time of challenge in his life and the global disruption in all of our lives over the past year.

God bless, and my condolences to the family, whom I hope can trust that his soul is in a better place in his afterlife.
