“ I've known Rasikamaushi for years and years since I have been first friends with Rajeev. All those years studying together meant I knew her as a person, as a poet and such a loving mother

Later when Rajeev and Anjali married it was an even closer bond strengthened by do many good moments as well as such challenges that showed the resilience and love in the family

As her health suffered she cherished the moments spent in Detroit and the thorough dedication Rajeev had I will remember with deep fondness 🙏

“ It was 1979, my first flight outside Kenya was to my beloved faiba in Mumbai, how can I forget that? May you rest in peace. Unable to write more than that, too many tears flowing down my eyes.

Hari Om!

I met Rasika aunty through Chinmaya Mission in one of the study groups. Aunty had the enthusiasm of a child to learn, was always positive, very kind and loving, determined to get to the goal of Liberation and never once expressed bitterness about what she had met in life.

She was a truly inspirational person, who taught us by how she faced life. Aunty sent our study group an email wishing us Happy Thanksgiving, just a few days ago.

Our prayers for aunty's family to continue to have the strength they have shown, thus far and honor her memory.

*With love and regards
