“ We have fond memories of Ray behind the bar at Pepino's. He loved to poke fun at Darrell and I during our Friday night stops by telling us how many patrons thought we were gay. Verna recalls all the times he would come over to our table with that contagious smile of his and tell her she could have done better. We will both miss him terribly. Our prayers are with Kathy now as she deals with this terrible loss. God Bless. Tony and Verna Lawrence
