“ *My deepest sympathy to the Odom Family. Raymond will surely be missed... I did not get the privilege of meeting Ramymond or the Family. Please accept my condolences nevertheless. I'd like to share what keeps me holding on to God's solid promises. 1 Corinthians chapter 15: verses 24-through 26) reads: "Next, the end, when he (Jesus Christ) hands over the Kingdom to his God and Father, (Jehovah God) , when he has brought to nothing all government and all authority and power. For he must rule as King until God (Jehovah) has put all enemies under his feet. (Notice this verse 26) "As the last enemy DEATH is to brought to nothing. So, we have Jehovah God reassurance that he will through Jesus Christ do away with death and evils of the day. “ Im truly sorry to hear about your lost. Raymond will definitely be missed by so many. One thing that helps me deal or cope with losing a loved one is the scripture John 5:28,29. It states, " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life....." Soon we will be able to see Raymond again because God (Jehovah) promises a resurrection hope. Also if you notice that it uses the term "memorial tomb" and not [Grave] which means Gods memory. Raymond seems like a really nice guy, a person that God will definitely remember. I hope this gives some comfort. Dion R (Truth.1914@yahoo.com)

“ Keith, Melissa and Family. It will be the little things that you will remember, the quiet moments, the smiles, and the laughter. And although it may seem hard right now, it will be the memories of these little things that help to push away the pain and bring the smiles back again. Please accept our most heartfelt sympathies for your loss...our thoughts are with you and your family through this most difficult time. We love you!!!!
