“ Im truly sorry to hear about your lost. Ray will definitely be missed by so many. One thing that helps me deal or cope with loosing a loved one is the scripture John 5:28,29. It stats " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life....." Soon we will be able to see Ray again because God (Jehovah) promises a resurrection hope. Also if you notice that it uses the term "memorial tomb" and not [Grave] which means Gods memory. Ray seems like a really nice guy, a person that God will definitely remember. I hope this gives some comfort.

“ To the Family of Raymond please accept my deepest sympathy. I did not know Ryamond, but I do know how much it hurts to lose a loved one. Our loving Creator has made mankind a promise that He will bring an end to this terrible pain forever. I hope this promise will comfort you as it has comforted me Isa:25:8 He will swallow up death [in victory; He will abolish death forever]. And the Lord God will wipe away tears from all faces; and the reproach of His people He will take away from off all the earth; for the Lord has spoken it.

“ My sincerest condolences to Leticia, Ray, Chrissy and all the grandchildren. Ray endured a lot, more than one person should have to go through. But no matter what, he persevered. We kicked some butt! I'll miss you, Ray. Be with God now, my friend.
