“ I am very sorry to hear about your loss. I offer my condolences to you and your family. I care that you are experiencing these hard times right now and most importantly Jehovah God does. At 1 Peter 5:8 Jehovah urges you to throw all your anxiety upon him because he cares for you. He also promises to destroy death forever. At your earliest convenience I invite you to also read 1 Corinthians 15:26. I hope this is comforting to you. Feel free to contact me and speak with other Jehovah's Witnesses. You and your family are in my prayers.

“ Dearest Szczublewski Family,

My Mom just shared that she saw your Dad's name on the sign at Vermeulen yesterday. Denise, I'm sorry to have missed an opportunity to pay my respects. You will never believe this...but my Mom and I were just talking about your Dad, literally last week...wondering how he was doing. I don't know what brought thoughts of him to us at that time...but they were good thoughts and wishes...maybe it was because he was most in need of good thoughts at that time...he is a part of my childhood memories...and because of him, you are a part of my childhood memories...may he rest in peace. Love, Lori

“ Grandpa, having the opportunity to spend your last couple weeks living together was a blessing. Despite some adjustments that were made for all of us, it was one of the best things for all of us to be together and share that time. I will miss waking up and seeing you smiling in your chair, or making silly faces, and saying your classic "did you ever think one year ago, that we'd be sitting here this very minute, in this very situation..." for everything we did. You were an amazing Grandfather, and I will forever cherish every memory we have together. I love you. May you rest in peace. Love, your little miracle
