“ I can still see you sitting at the LaBoda's kitchen table waiting to indulge in one of our holiday feasts. And especially remember your teasing and antagonizing the kids ! Sylvia won't have to share the pickles any more either - so sad. Rest in peace friend. You'll be missed.

“ How lucky am I to have received the opportunity to call you my Uncle Ray. From family gatherings, nights at the bowling alley watching you and my dad play, to spending time visiting you on the midnight shift at your work. It feels like just yesterday I was at your retirement party for Plymouth township police. I will miss you dearly Uncle Ray. The Yudt Family gained another beautiful angel. Hug grandpa John tight for all of us. Go Blue! Love, your great-niece, Melissa

“ I couldn't have had a better partner to start my career. I remember flipping a coin one time to see which department we would call for a boat entry. I will miss his laugh and fast comebacks. He when he didn't feel well, he still would make you laugh with a quick come back. I will miss you,

“ Ray was a stand up guy. A great guy with a great sense of humor. I always enjoyed working with him and hearing his staunch firm voice at the other end of the mic. May you rest in peace Ray.
