“ I remember the day Nanny taught me how to sew. She made a lot of beautiful Barbie doll clothes that I have kept and will pass down, one day, to a granddaughter of my own.

Nanny also taught me how to bake, starting with my Daddy's favorite, sugar pie! I loved helping her in the kitchen.

I will remember her laugh and the way she sort of bounced when she sang a song. I will remember sitting around her kitchen table playing cards and enjoying conversation. Nanny was an important part of my childhood, she taught me important life skills as well as life lessons that I will never forget. I miss her dearly but I am glad she is now at peace.
