“ My deepest condolences to Tim and her loving family and friends we all love her very much....I first met Becky when she was working at the Temple bar and we immediately became friends.....she would often confide in me about things and i would try to ease her worries, sometimes i would say something off the wall and she would give me that look over her glasses then reply....Okay Bobby that is too much information and laugh, she would try to help people when she could and never ever did i hear her say anything bad about anyone even if she had been wronged, I know she was going through some trying times and was always glad to see her and talk about what was happening....I will miss her quick wit and laughter and i will always fondly remember her....Thank you Becky for being my friend.....Bobby"D"
