“ Aunt Reggie was easy to talk to. She was always gracious and offered great hospitality when we visited the big city for family events in the 1970s.

In recent years I enjoyed dropping by visiting her.

She enjoyed the polka dances and festivals for years. She was practical and strong woman.

Thanks for the memories!!!

“ I remember whenever I would wear ripped jeans to a family gathering, Grandma Ciszewski would ask me “why are your jeans ripped?”. She was always baffled that I would wear ripped jeans on purpose. I would laugh and say “that’s the style Grandma!” and she would laugh and tell me about the styles that were in when she was my age. Grandma Ciszewski was so kind and loving. I imagine her now in heaven with God and the biggest smile on her face. ❤️
