“ Chris, so very sorry to hear about Renee's passing. Will never forget the Millionaire Party nights at Warren Valley. She was always so full of life. Can't remember ever seeing Renee without a smile on her face, her laughter filling the room. She was a fine lady, and I'm sure, a great mother and wonderful companion to you.

“ My interactions with Renee were always pleasant and I have nothing but wonderful memories of her. Words seem inadequate to express the sadness felt about the loss of Renee. I was reminded of what she meant to Chris on a daily basis. He was blessed to know her and she him. God bless and keep you in these trying times. My condolences to her family.

“ Even though we moved many states away, we never grew apart. Our husband forever keeping us laughing....Renee will be missed greatly by not only myself but my whole family. The Rollins are not blood relatives but we love them like they are :) Our hearts go out to the Chris and Brad. Renee and Debbie will forever be watching over you both!!!
