“ Your broken Chain

*You little new that morning that God was going to call Rick's name,
In life you and many loved him dearly ;in death you do the same.*

It broke our hearts to lose you, you did not go alone.

Part of us went with you Rick, the day God called you home.

You left us peaceful memories, your love is still our guide,

And thou we cannot see you, you are always at our side.

Our family chain is broke, and nothing seems the same,

But as God calls us one by one, the chain will link again.

Linda, Jeff and Justin our thoughts, prayers and sympathy are with you and all the family. Strength is wished for you always. Love, Tom and Ellen

“ Rick, some of us refer to him as (Sgt.), was dad to one of my dearest friends Jeff. Jeff and I were college roommates at MSU, it was immediate that I noticed the high regard and affection that Jeff had for not only his dad, but Linda and Justin (not so much) as well. Rick would come up to State and get mad if I attempted to pay for my dinner. Us being roommates in addition to being from cities in close proximity meant we became basically inseparable during breaks from college. This is when I really got to know Rick and made so many memories of him and with the Hernandez family. Rick was such an awesome man, had a mean streak that not a lot of people saw, which Meghan and I thought was hilarious. He'd fly off the handle for a minute and 5 minutes later, acted like nothing happened. For a better part of 10 years he welcomed me into his household like I was one of his own. For that I am grateful. I'll miss you.

And to Linda, Jeff and Justin on behalf of my family - - we are so sorry for your loss and we send our love.
