“ Rick was an NRA instructor and was very involved with Women's Sport Shooting as a key instructor at Western Wayne County Conservation Association. He was the WWCCA Booster Vice President and DRSO and volunteered on many other events for the benefit of the club and members,. Rick was well respected and admired for his knowledge, dedication and hard work. He was always willing to help a student. Rick was loved by many of his students and will be greatly missed. Women's Sport Shooting group will plan on a celebration of his life at the club in the spring. Dianne Salata

“ Richard was one of the kindest and caring people I've known. You could always count on a wide smile, and often a dad joke to make you moan. You will be missed, Richard.
