“ Well Uncle Rich it was time for you to go home. Tell my mom hello for me.
I will miss you soooo much. I will miss a special trip Elaine and I took up north to stay a few days with grandma and grandpa Frazzini we had so much fun. When you came up to get the 2 of us, I remember queezing in the hatch back of that little Ford Capri. Elaine and I were waving our arms at truck drivers so they would beep at us. I remember thinking I have the coolest Uncle who let us do those things. I loved going to the circus to see the clowns and desperately trying to figure out which clown belonged to our family. Then going to the Harbor House after the Shrine Circus 🎪 with ALL the clowns 🤡 still dressed as they were at the big top. I sure will miss you 😭 and the wonderful memories I have with you, Aunt Gail and Elaine. You were a wonderful Uncle and I will always proudly say you were a great Godfather to me. Until later, bye for now.
Love, Teresa (your Neice and Goddaughter) 💜❤️

“ Rich, thank you for being a great guy! You lit up all of our lives with your loving & giving heart & sense of humor. I’m thankful for the memories you’ve left us & the interesting & funny stories you’ve shared with us. I’ll never forget our family visit to The Henry Ford Museum & Greenfield Village. I highly respect you, Rich & thank God for the gift of you. Praying for peace & comfort for your family. You’re going to be missed!

“ Rich - May this next journey be amazing. I know your previous one was filled with laughter and love. Thank you for introducing Manna Meals to me. Your torch is still being carried. This morning in Corktown we were remembering Rich-isms: “Packski Packski”, the sung little ditties, the bad-dad-jokes, the Henry Ford Museum trivia (that we didn’t get the answer to until the next Tuesday at Manna!), the trusty van you hauled 7-8 of us downtown in each week, the “ya know what Gail told me the other day?...”, “gotta get home to the grandkids!...”. You brought us a lot of joy. Well done faithful servant. Thank you Rich.

Rich - You kept us in line (and stitches) at Manna Meals. As our fearless leader, you managed to keep us productive as well as finding humor in our early morning interactions. I learned a lot from you - trivia answers, a little Polish and how to make a good peanut butter and jelly sandwich. I know that you will put those skills to good use in heaven. It was great to have served with you.
