“ I'm sorry for your loss. Death is our common enemy as it affects all of us. I therefore want to encourage the family to take heart and be hopeful in the promise by God, that he will wipe every tears and no more will be any death again. Death will be brought to nothing, Isaiah 25:8 and 1Corinthians 15:28. God by means of Jesus will call and all that died will hear his voice and come out. John 5:25. We have an opportunity to see our dead loved ones come back to life again and never to die. What a wonderful moment that will be!

“ Please accept my condolence for the loss of your father. I considered your father a friend and enjoyed the time spent with him at work and on the golf course. He was a kind and considerate man who cared much about his family.

“ My prayers go to the family of Dick. He was an exceptional, very astute tradesman, who was funny, alert in every way-but especially a "from the heart" kind of man. Dick was one of those special people whom only special people can understand. God be with you, Dick, you're a great gyy, I will miss you. Your friend, Bob Hooton

“ In the godforsaken, obscene quicksand of life, there is a deafening alleluia rising from the souls of those who weep, and of those who weep with those who weep. If you watch, you will see the hand of God putting the stars back in their skies one by one. Ann Weems Michael, Rick, and Kevin - I am truly sorry for your loss. Your father was a wonderful man that I am so very blessed to have known. He was one of God's greatest and brightest stars, and he will be missed by so many. God bless him and all of you.

“ Michael, Richard, Kevin, Carole, and Kathleen- The people we love live on in our hearts. It takes a long time to get used to the lose of someone we love. But it's important to remember that when people die they leave something very special behind - They leave memories of many things they said and did. And as long as we have those memories, the people we love will live on in our hearts and minds. You'll always remember. I'll miss him dearly. He was my big brother. God bless and hold you in His arms.
