“ Oh my,not sweet Ricky Moore! Always smiling! We went way back to when my mom first met some of the guys at the Moorehouse way back in the late 90's and then I ended up in the program scared,didnt know a thing and Ricky always made it a pleasant not so scary kind of thing. Between the rides hed give me and the knowledge he had already had to taking me out to the nso shop to get my own meeting started at St. Johns church on saturdays in westland to his inspiration on how he did it when he was so many years clean. My heart broke when i worked at the rehab and I last seen him 11 years ago,he was like a big brother to me and we certainly shared some tragedies with our fallen friends to good times like the first big dance at the fairgrounds him & his gal at the time took my husband and I to.I havent seen him since i went North,i missed alot of friends down there and think of them all everyday hoping nothing but good things! Ricky was such a Good guy,good father and good loving friend with a good heart. My heart is broken! Miss you big brother! Love,Bridgett

“ I was so sorry to hear about the passing of my cousin Ricky. He had a hard life, but every time I saw him he always had a smile on his face and a kind word to say. After family visits, my parents would always say how nice Ricky had been to them. I witnessed this a few years back at some family gatherings. Ricky always had a smile and wanted to make sure that everyone was comfortable and had everything we needed. He would ask how everyone was and sit for a nice chat. I will remember him always for his kind heart and gentle soul. Rest in peace, Ricky.

“ I met Rick with my Wife and we knew him about 8yrs. He was a laid back guy who liked to fish and spend time with his Son. Rick went through a lot when he was in a bad accident with a semi truck and he almost passed from that but God had more time for him. Im sorry that he is gone now and gone to soon. Rest in Heaven my Friend
