“ I am the mother of a son Rick had in 1984, he only had him in his life for a year and a half, and then we moved on, best thing we ever did. Yes Eric and Jennifer have another brother out there that they probably never knew about, hes a fine young man and was raised by another good man who didn't beat his mother.

“ *To Sharon and Rick's family.
You have lost a husband, a son, a father and a brother. I have lost my best buddy and friend. My God bless you all in this time of sorrow.*

“ Rick was a good friend and a hard worker. I knew him well. I was a Millwright at Ford Livonia and we worked together many times. I just retired to the Philippines so I am sorry that I could not attend the service. COWBOY

“ When I got the call about Rick and when I was finally able to catch my breath, the first thing that came to mind is something that someone I love tells me countless times, tomorrow is promised to no one, and while I know this, I just never want to believe it until I've lost someone that means so much to me. Rick.....he was so boisterous and his presence was always known and everyone felt very strongly about him....you liked him, you disliked him or you just plain tolerated him. But Rick was so generous and did so many things for people that went unnoticed and he was never truly appreciated for everything that he really did.
I don't know what we'll do without him.....But, I do know this.....Right now, Rick is kicked back at the second shoe at Heavens Place with his cup of ice and a Bud Light and he's telling everyone that's been waiting for him about his trip there. We will miss him greatly and he will live in our hearts forever and don't you know he will ALWAYS be our....."Just Rick"

“ We had the pleasure of meeting Rick and Sharon just two years ago and they immediately became good friends. What a pleasure to have known him, he made every visit to the Legion fun. We will miss him dearly.

“ I HAVE HAD THE PLEASURE TO BE A FRIEND AND FELLOW EMPLOYEE. WHENEVER I NEEDED ANYTHING RICK WAS THERE FOR ME. IT IS TO QUIET AT WORK NOW AND LEAVES MY HEART SAD TO NOT SEE HIM AT THE COFFEE POT. HOPE HE HAS FINALLY FOUND PEACE.

“ Rick was just a great guy! He always called me "sweetheart". I always looked forward to talking with him even though that meant that he had some problem that required our assistance. May he rest in peace!!
