“ To the Family of Richard Darwin Stanhope. My heart goes out to you in the loss of your dear loved one Richard, he will truly be missed... What I do in times of distress such as this when losing a dear loved one to the enemy death is put faith and trust in God's unfailing Inspired Word the Bible. (1Corinthians 15:260 says: As the last enemy, death, is to be brought to nothing. Jesus Christ whom he himself was brought back to life by his Heavenly Father, Jehovah knew this all too well we he said: "Do not be amazed at this, for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice (Jesus') and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life... Soon now just as Jesus stated in this Scripture John 5:28,29- that our dead loved ones will come out of the memorial tombs! Meaning they will be in God's memory until his appointed time to be released from the enemy death. We all really look forward to that!!! I hope this gives some comfort/hope in God's unfailing promise. see www.jw.org for more information about the resurrection promise.

“ Im truly sorry to hear about your lost. Richard will definitely be missed by so many. One thing that helps me deal or cope with loosing a loved one is the scripture John 5:28,29. It stats " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life....." Soon we will be able to see Richard again because God (Jehovah) promises a resurrection hope. Also if you notice that it uses the term "memorial tomb" and not [Grave] which means Gods memory. Richard seemed like a really nice guy, a person that God will definitely remember. I hope this gives some comfort. Dion R (Truth.1914@yahoo.com)
