“ Coach Westemeier gave his time, talent and patience to coach us in the early years of basketball at Our Lady of Good Counsel in Plymouth. I don't remember much, but I remember him designing plays on that white marker board. We were not a record breaking team, but participating in basketball was important in my development. I am grateful for him and his efforts.

“ Mr. Westemeier, as we would call him, used to drive us to high school at Divine Child. I remember those mornings when it was his turn to pick each one of us up at our homes in that Aerostar van. Sliding the door open, it was like opening a sauna. It was so hot to us. Winter jackets came off and ties around the neck loosened. Eventually, one of us shy boys would be outgoing enough to ask “hey Mr. Westemeier, could you turn down the heat? “ He would oblige with a single “click“ on the temperature thing. We all looked at each other and thought, oh man. Why did he like it so hot? I believe he was the only father to participate in that carpool though on his way into Ford. Good man. Thankful for him.
