“ I have known Rick since high school and grew up around his wife (Janine's) household as a kid. I remember many good times with Rick and his wife. We have lost touch over the years as many do. Rick was one of the most kind hearted, unselfish, person's I have ever known. My prayer's are with his family and his wife Janine. He will always be remembered in my heart.

“ I truly liked Rick because of his sincerity, honesty, and willines to help in any task that may arise. I have a lot of respect for him because of these qualities.. I always thought of him as a "classy" salesperson who I enjoyed being around. He knew his stuff, and he treated everyone with kindness, humor, understanding, appreciation and respect. My heartfelt sadness goes out to Rick's family. Take care of each other.

“ Our thoughts and prayers to Janine and family. In the industry Rick worked in, he was respected by all those who knew him, friend and foe alike. He was excellent in his field and not only did the family lose a loved one, but the entire Michigan/Ohio market lost one of the best it has seen in years.

“ This loss leaves a whole in our lives that will never be filled. I am so grateful for the days in hunting camp when we became close friends as well as brothers. His seat at the camp table and his place in our hearts will never be equally occupied. If only we could all be equally kind and have his wonderful, wry sense of humor. He has left us peacefully but alas, far too early. Til our next hunting trip together old buddy.... gary “ Rick will truly be missed. In the sales world he was truly one of the good guys. I considered him not only a great business associate, but a good friend. He was one of those guys you always wanted to be around because he always made you laugh. My sympathys to his wife and family and to all the people who's lives he has enriched.
