“ JR. I CAN'T TELL YOU HOW MUCH I MISS YOU, SO MANY THINGS I WANT TO TALK TO YOU ABOUT, WHICH IS VERY DIFFICULT NOW THAT I CAN'T. I GUESS GOD HAD HIS REASONS BUT SURE WISH YOU WERE STILL HERE WITH ME. LOVE YOU SO MUCH

“ Father, I have failed you. If I live to be 1,000 I would fail you. You made everything look so easy.

“ Dear family of mine, It is so difficult to find the words to express the loss I feel. My uncle had a very tough exterior, but inside he was as soft as a marshmallow. I admired his wit and his intelligence, but most of all, I love how he took such good care of his family, including my mother. I will always remember him so fondly, and I am praying for Aunt Syl, Mike, and everyone who needs strength and peace.

“ Dad, You adopted me when I was 4 and gave me the name and personality I lived with for the next 54 years. You taught me how to ride a bike and the difference between right and wrong. After you divorced my mother I ran to you for support. I cherished you my whole life. I will never understand why you banished me from your life after I turned 25. I might not have been blood but I graduated from high school because I wanted you to be proud of me. I joined the Navy because you did, so you would be proud of me. You threw me away like I was trash and never told me why. I treated your family with love and respect, and I think they loved me. I was there when you got Dreadnaught the St. Bernard. I baby sat your boy Mike and changed his diapers. I wish to this day I knew why you disowned me. I learned to treat my wife and kids with respect after watching you disrespect yours. You were so smart, yet you never taught us kids anything. Why Dad why? I looked after Ruth Ann and Bobby when you weren't around. Why couldn't you respect me for that. I turned out to be a good man Dad and all I wanted was you to notice., but you didn't. Was it because I was to smart for you to control. You made me self efficient, I never asked you for anything but love. Well you are gone now and I will never get that love but you died with my respect. I am proud to be a Carson and my sons Steven and Kyle are proud to be Carsons. We carry the name with pride. I'm sorry you never got to know them, they would have made you proud. Say hello to my mom and grandma Carson for me Dad. Good Bye Sailor.

“ Granddad and I never got to spend a lot of time together, but I cherish the time we did have. Especially three years ago when my dad and I took a trip to see him. I was so happy to meet my granddad. After seeing the nice pictures on here of me and him, I cried because now I know he really does love me and I have always loved him. I am glad he passed knowing I am happy and will have a great future ahead of me. Grandpa I am going to go to college, and think of you everytime I feel I am about to give up on something. I feel like we can already communicate because you're always in my heart. I know I will get to see you again. Thank you for all of your love and gifts that always came from the heart. I appreciate everything you have done for me and my family. Uncle Mike, Grandmom Syl, and I will keep in touch and I know your name will always live on with tons of stories. Everyone misses you already. I love you. _Kristen

“ Words cannot express the sorrow in my heart when I heard that Robert “Dad” Carson died. He was always kind to me and made me feel part of my husband’s family. I was rooting for him to pull through, but, now he is in a better place, heaven. He will be greatly missed, not only by me, but by my husband, daughter and son. Mike and Sylvia, my prayers go out to you, that you may find comfort in your time of grief.
