“ I own Bumpers Bar and Grill. Bob was a customer of ours. He was a friend of mine. He stopped showing up a couple months ago and knew something was wrong. I did not know how to find him to see if there was anything I could do so I resigned to searching the internet. I recently found his obituary and the loss was confirmed. I miss him. In his own cranky way he made me smile and laugh. He was quiet to most while he sat and played Keno. He would give his straight no BS answers anytime he was asked for it. We laughed alot with each other about different things-- news, idiots at the bar, and alot at stupid things I did. I thought about him on the 4th of July because he would always tease me about blowing myself up with the fireworks we light off at the bar. Nonetheless, he always would watch me do it. I still wait for him to walk in and yell for his Keno slips. I still keep them behind the bar. He is missed and always remembered. My deepest sympathy to his family. Sincerely, Billy
