“ *I am the housekeeping supervisor of Waltonwood Cherry hill, It was with great pleasure I had the chance to get to know Bob, he was a very good person to talk with, I remember when he was going to Las Vegas, how excited he was, when he returned, I had went up and we talked about his trip, he said just being there with family really made the trip extra special to him. He will be deeply missed by me, as well as many of our great residents, he was just a kind man who loved to have a conversation.
RIP Bob, you will Truly be Missed.
Thoughts and prayers are with you all.*

“ Brian and Andy so sorry to hear about your dad, had some fun times at your house on Bison growing up, though I do remember we did not always make your dad happy about of some them. He was always a nice man, even when he probably should have been strangling us for our mischief! Take care buddy!!
