“ Im truly sorry to hear about your lost. Robert will definitely be missed by so many. One thing that helps me deal or cope with loosing a loved one is the scripture John 5:28,29. It stats " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment." Soon we will be able to see Robert again because God (Jehovah) promises a resurrection hope. Also if you notice that it uses the term "memorial tomb" and not [Grave] which means Gods memory. Robert seemed like a really nice guy, a person that God will definitely remember. I hope this gives some comfort. Dion R (Truth.1914@yahoo.com)

“ We had only known Rob for a short time. Through Randy and Robin Clapper who is our daughter and son-inlaw. I was impressed by the knowledge and the pictures of the dragsters that Rob had built...We had donated a wood carved cane for Tina's binefit , which I beleive Rob had kept because of his injury.. We are blessed to have known Rob and Tina.. Our hearts and prayers go out to your family. You will be missed... Ray and Pat Weller

“ Oh my brother,, how you will be sooo missed. we had some very good times, and some not so memorable. Rob loved anything automotive related. I first met Rob at his and Tina's wedding, where I withnessed the big baby crying. (which if you knew him, he did not cry, well in front of anyone) Then after I came back from the Marine Corp, we reunited. I remember the first time he tricked me into helping him pull an engine out of a car,, oh yeah,, it was in January, outside, snowing, and wind gusting. we had to keep removing the hydraulic cylinder from the chery picker, because it was so cold, it would freeze the oil and we had to take it inside the house to warm it up,, not warm ourselfs up, but the cylinder. We worked on many cars together. Rob had a huge heart and wanted to help everyone. And guard your little babies if Rob was around,, he just had to have that baby in his arms, smelling the baby's head. He loved to smell little babies. I could probably go on and on about our little excursions, but long story short, Robert Hewitt, you will be missed greatly. I love you my brother.
