“ *I often think of Bob and Anita and wondered how they were doing, found this online and wanted to say Im so sorry for your loss. They were both such lovely people, I have many lights Bob made and treasure them
Im sure he is missed by many*

“ Bob was a wonderful example of a strong and tender Christ-follower. He had a tremendous sense of humor and was so devoted to his wife. I still have in my office, one of the tin candle holders he made in his workshop at his home. It reminds me of light in darkness, and of patience in the midst of suffering. He'll be missed by all who know him.

“ So sorry to hear of Mr. Horwood's passing. He and my Dad (Howard Schweppe) and Bill Buesching used to do Tinsmithing together. They were called the "Tinsmiths Three". We always had such a great time together at craft shows. I have such fond memories of those days and the Tinsmiths Three.

“ Dear Horwood Family,

Many years ago I taught with your dad. He was a great friend and colleague. About a year ago I had the opportunity to have lunch with him and we had great time sharing memories of the past at Central Middle School. He was a good teacher and quite a craftsman and he also had a wicked sense of humor. He was an insightful mentor to me as a young teacher. Praying for your family. May God give you the peace that passes all understanding. Mike
