“ Im truly sorry to hear about your lost. Robert will definitely be missed by so many. One thing that helps me deal or cope with losing a loved one is the scripture John 5:28,29. It states, " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life....." Soon we will be able to see Robert again because God (Jehovah) promises a resurrection hope. I hope this gives some comfort.

“ As Bob's neighbor, I would often go to Bob's house to play marbles. It may not sound that fun. However, Bob made the experience very fun. He was very engaging. Bob was very clever and had an astounding sharp wit. I really enjoyed Bob and his demeanor; he was not only a man to enjoy but one to emulate. He was such a kind and great man. I will truly miss him.

“ Sons and fathers-in-law don't always click but Bob warmly welcomed me into this family, taught me how to play (and consistently, gracefully lose) at backgammon, willingly shared secrets regarding fixing things (boats, tools, relationships....), always smiled and listened to what I had to say (nonsense or otherwise), loved my bride and our children, and made the world a much brighter and better place. We all have been blessed in sharing the time we did with Bob. Love you.....Jeff

My thoughts and prayer stays with you and your family at this time and for the days ahead. It will take awhile to adjust to the loss of someone so special. I know he will still be with you in ways beyond our understanding. Deep peace and much love. Mary

“ I have so many images of you and Obe sitting at the piano playing and singing together. This left such an impression on me, that when I stumbled on old piano rolls at a resale shop I was compelled to pick them up for you. Whenever I visited, you were always warm and engaging. You welcomed me into your home as if you'd known me for ages, just because I was a friend of your daughter. Your light and spirit will be missed by so many.

“ Bob lived next door to Bruce and I. The day we moved in The Moll's came over to introduce themselves and gave us home made monkey bread. That was the beginning of a great friendship. We use to say we should just build a bridge between our houses because we were back and forth all the time. No need to knock, we/they would just open the door and call out. My husband is a great man but, not the most handy with household repairs (Frank Wadsworth can attest to that). Bob helped us with taking down trees, sewing, installing locks, and endless other things that we weren't good at doing for ourselves. We Could never have ask for better neighbors because they were more than neighbors....Bob and Eva were family. We had great times in Hawaii, Northern Michigan, Florida and most of all right in our back yards. We will miss Bob dearly. Love you Bob!

“ The time we have on earth is but a blink of the eye compared to eternal life in heaven with our Father. We are so grateful for the time we had with Bob and Eva as our neighbors for over 20 years. We were the best of friends and enjoyed each other's company to the max. We vacationed together, we ate together, we played together, we lived, we laughed, we loved TOGETHER. It was simply a perfect relationship. Our condolences to the girls and to all of the beautiful Moll family. Our prayer is we all unite in heaven. Glory to God and peace to His people on earth. Until we meet again - Praise the Lord. Love you - Bruce.

“ This truly special man..how very much he will be missed by his beautiful family and all his friends..~! Oh that glint in his eyes!!! A glimmer of his wit and his "always at the ready" humor....yet underneath the smiles and the charm was a deep warmth that would enclose you like the softest blanket, take you in and set you down on the couch and hold you close to keep out the rough of the day, cold of the night,and the stark that sometimes reality can be..and ask you...would you like to learn about the stars ? Robert you will be sore missed here on earth..but I know you are smiling now and laughing beside your beautiful bride..your hand and hers together again. We all sing your songs now and remember what a gift you were to us! We were blessed to have you in our midst for so long.....love..Kristyn and the Lutey Family

“Daddy, Thank you for: *making me that box to house my butterflies while I studied them *teaching me to play and love baseball *taking me camping, sailing and skiing *treating me the same as a boy *encouraging me to do my best and reach for the stars *teaching me to change a tire, my oil and my mind *giving me the love of travel and adventure *loving my mommy for a lifetime I love you and will miss you forever.

“Cindy, Fr. Zbigniew and our parish family send their deepest condolences. Although we knew each other through business, it was so obvious how deeply you loved and cherished your Dad. And even though he was really, really struggling you never stopped giving him 110 per cent of your time, attention and love. You are in our prayers.
