“ Ohh, miss my dear Friend John every morning when I wake up. I would call John and we go over the weather every single day. Then we talk about the people up-and-down the street. And if I told John something was hurt on me. He would say Piper, you're getting old. And I say you mean we are getting old. Now I have no one to talk to every morning. And I sure do miss you are ready. I hope you and Mara are back together again. I'll miss you, John, tell Myra. I said hello. And I. Won't forget to put the fertilizer on my grass. Love and miss you john

This is very nice Uncle David! John was there for my uncle especially in the years after my uncle Danny passed. John always checked on my uncle, helped him up after a couple falls, and stayed in touch with our family if he was concerned about my Uncle David. I truly believe if it wasn't for John we would have lost my uncle before we convinced him to move in with his family. Prayers to the family ❤️
