“ I have known Bob for about 30 years. I was his bartender at the casino in Baraga and that is how we met. We became great friends and I am just heartbroken to find out that he has passed away. I will remember you forever Bob! Your kindness will never be matched. Love ya always. Fly high with your beloved wife Carol. 💔 Dianne Gallagher

“ Margie - what a beautiful service you and your kids hosted yesterday for Bob❤️. The love and support that overloaded that funeral home is a true testament to the love, loyalty and respect that is deserved for Bob. He had the biggest and kindest heart and I will miss my long talks with him for sure. 😭
I am fortunate to have known him and to forever call you my friend-always here for you. 🌸

Margie, I know Bob treasured you and dependent on you for everything he needed after Carol passed. You and him are the ideal brother and sister. I know you'll miss him dearly. I could see it all over you yesterday. You have been the best sister to a Brother I have ever seen and I pray to God that you get a recognition for your loving and loving him like you did. I do admire you. May God bless you and keep you safe every day Bob will watch over you every day. I know you're the greatest. Take care of yourself and keep in contact please
